

Raczki Studio Cookies Policy

Last Updated: 16.05.2024

At Raczki Studio, we are committed to protecting your privacy. This Cookies Policy explains how we use cookies and similar technologies on our website.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your device when you visit a website. They help us enhance your experience by remembering your preferences and visits.

How we use cookies

We use cookies for the following purposes:

- Analytics: We use Google Analytics to collect information about how visitors use our website. This helps us understand user behavior and improve our site. The data collected by Google Analytics is anonymous and includes information such as the pages you visit, how long you stay, and how you arrived at our site.

Google Analytics

Google Analytics uses cookies to collect this information. The data generated by these cookies is transmitted to and stored by Google on servers in the United States. Google uses this information to evaluate your use of our website, compile reports on website activity, and provide other services related to website activity and internet usage.

You can learn more about Google's privacy practices by visiting their Privacy Policy page.

Managing cookies

Most web browsers allow you to control cookies through their settings preferences. However, if you choose to disable cookies, some features of our website may not function properly.

Changes to this Cookies Policy

We may update this Cookies Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our practices or for other operational, legal, or regulatory reasons. Please review this policy periodically to stay informed about how we use cookies.
